- of the dual credit program will also meet high school graduation requirements.
3. The parent/guardian and student understand that if the student does not successfully complete the dual credit courses, the student may not meet high school graduation requirements.
 4. The student and/or parent/guardian may be responsible for tuition and campus fees, books and consumable supplies, laboratory fees, transportation, and any other related educational expenses.
 5. The parent/guardian and the student understand that the student is expected to participate fully in all course activities, including labs, which may involve being exposed to alternative viewpoints that may include material of an adult nature.
 6. The parent/guardian and student understand that the Hawaii State Department of Education is not liable for the student's health and safety when the student has left the high school campus.
 7. The parent/guardian and student understand that students in the dual credit program have the same rights and responsibilities as any other University of Hawai'i college student.
 8. The parent/guardian and student understand that the University of Hawai'i's policies and procedures apply to students in the dual credit program, in addition to all Hawaii State Department of Education policies and procedures. Specifically, the University of Hawai'i's EP 1.204 – Interim Policy and Procedure on Sex Discrimination and Gender-Based Violence applies to all dual credit students. EP 1.204 makes confidential resources available to all students and these confidential resources are not required to notify parents/guardians of services rendered to students. The University of Hawai'i also may require students to complete training related to its policies, including EP 1.204, which may contain adult content or content that may not be age-appropriate. EP 1.204 can be found on UH's website at <https://www.hawaii.edu/policy/docs/temp/ep1.204.pdf>. UH's Resource Guide to Title IX can be found at <http://uhcc.hawaii.edu/titleIX/docs/TitleIXBrochure.pdf>.

Course	Credits	Requirement	Location	Campus	Source of Funding
ENGL 19	3	Met Course	High School	University of Hawaii	College

- The University of Hawaii and the high school reserve the right to determine admission to the university/college and/or registration in certain courses.
- The high school is the final authority on high school graduation requirements. Students must meet closely with a high school counselor to ensure that graduation requirements are met. It is understood that the student is responsible to ensure that the college credits completed as part of the dual credit program will also meet high school graduation requirements.
- The parent/guardian and student understand that if the student does not successfully complete the dual credit course, the student may not meet high school graduation requirements.
- The student and/or parent/guardian may be responsible for tuition and various fees, books and computer supplies, laboratory fees, transportation, and any other related educational expenses.
- The student understands that the student is expected to participate fully in all course activities, including labs, which may involve being exposed to hazardous elements that may include material of an adult nature.
- The parent/guardian and student understand that the Hawaii State Department of Education is not liable for the student's health and safety when the student has left the high school campus.
- The parent/guardian and student understand that students in the dual credit program have the same rights and responsibilities as any other University of Hawaii college student.
- The parent/guardian and student understand that the University of Hawaii's policies and procedures apply to students in the dual credit program. In addition to all Hawaii State Department of Education policies and procedures, specifically the University of Hawaii's EPT 201 - Student Policy and Procedures on Sex Discrimination and Gender-Based Violence applies to dual credit students. EPT 204 - Student conduct measures applicable to all students and these conductive measures are not required to notify parent/guardians of services rendered to students. The University of Hawaii also may require students to complete training related to tobacco, including EPT 124, which also contains and should be completed by any dual credit student. EPT 207 - Code of Student Conduct applies to all students at the University of Hawaii. The University of Hawaii's policies and procedures apply to students in the dual credit program.
- If, where applicable, the student gives permission for the University of Hawaii to release information, grades, placement test scores, student academic progress, attendance, and other pertinent information to the high school administrator(s) within reasonable limits.
- All the parent/guardian, I give permission to the Hawaii State Department of Education to verify the socioeconomic status of my child to the University of Hawaii for the purpose of determining academic eligibility.
